

This June 13, 2001, update is from EPA's Chemical Emergency Preparedness and Prevention Office.
Direct links to each document are provided.
Volume 1, Number 13 includes:

1. A New, Expanded, Faster CAMEO System Will Be Available Soon.....
2. Letter to SERC Chairperson
3. Change in ATSDR's 24 Emergency Response
Telephone Number

1. The CAMEO Suite of programs (CAMEO, ALOHA, and MARPLOT) is being updated using Filemaker, to replace the aging FoxPro and HyperCard applications used in the present versions. This factsheet provides details on the revisions being made. This factsheet can be downloaded at <http://www.epa.gov/ceppo/whatnew.html>.

2. This letter to State Emergency Response Commission (SERC) Chairpersons details recent activities at CEPPO and some of our plans for the future. This letter is available on the CEPPO website. <http://www.epa.gov/ceppo/whatnew.html>

3. Beginning on June 8th and becoming effective on June 11, 2001, the telephone system at the Agency for Toxic Substance and Disease Registry (ATSDR) will be extensively modernized. The joint CDC/ATSDR 24 hour Emergency Response Line that has been in place for over 10 years will change. For public health consultative support from ATSDR during industrial chemical emergencies, the new number is 404-498-0120. For public health consultative support from the CDC during natural disasters or oil spills, the number is 770-488-7100. The fax number for ATSDR is 404-498-0056
while the fax number for CDC remains 770-488-7107.
